Division Merging and Draw Procedure

In the event of an insufficient number of competitors, divisions may be merged at the discretion of the Organizing Committee.

For the sake of transparency and fairness, team coaches have the right to be present at the draw and to participate in discussions regarding the merging of divisions.

Any coach who does not attend the official draw waives the right to submit objections concerning the merging of divisions after the draw has been conducted.

Protest

Any official protest must be submitted in writing to the Tournament Organizing Committee by the team coach or team representative within the time frame specified by the organizers. A protest fee of $100 USD must be paid at the time of submission.

If the protest is upheld, the full protest fee will be refunded.

If the protest is rejected, the protest fee will not be returned.

All decisions of the Tournament Organizing Committee regarding protests are final.

Dobok Regulations

Participants competing in the U.S. Open ITF Taekwon-Do Championships may wear a dobok of any brand, provided it bears Taekwon-Do symbolism and is appropriate for competition.

For divisions designated as National Qualifiers, competitors are required to wear an ITF dobok, of any brand, in accordance with ITF regulations.

Liability and Insurance

The Organizers shall not be held responsible for the loss of or damage to personal property during the Championships.

All participants are personally responsible for ensuring that they have valid medical and accident insurance covering the duration of the competition.
